

The Bandit

February 5, 1997 • Issue XV

~~JOBS!!!~~

"The Bandit" has been running this announcement for over a month. We did so because we felt it to be a very important item, worthy of repetition. The time is nearly at hand. The Career Fair is next week. Details are as follows: Career Fair @ the Clatsop County Fairgrounds. Times: Tuesday, February 11, 1997 (9 a.m.-noon for high school students and 1:30-6 p.m. for college students and community); Wednesday, February 12, 1997 (9 a.m.-noon, open to high school students). The purpose of this project is to coordinate all career fair activities into one county-wide event. Local and Portland Metro area employers will be present. Career focus areas include: Arts and Communication, Health Services, Industry and Engineering, Business and Management, Human Resources, and Natural Resources. Management Training Corporation, Clatsop Community College, Tongue Point Job Corps, Employment Division and other area employers also have been invited to attend. *Please see the attached flyer for a list of those employers that will be in attendance.

>>>FYI<<<

>STUDENT ON-LINE INTERNET ACCESS<

Look for job opportunities, polish your resumes; the possibilities are endless! As of Monday, January 20th the Internet has been available to students in the ASBG office. This service has been available to all Clatsop College students from 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., Monday-Friday. Students need to sign up in the ASBG office. The limit is one hour per day per student. Guidelines and procedures will be posted at the computer. There will be office staff or computer work/study students available to assist you. Your cooperation and adherence to office policies will be appreciated--and expected.

PARK WISELY

"The Bandit" has learned through our anonymous, deep-cover source, "sore throat" that there is going to be a severe crack-down on those parking illegally. Anyone parking in an area not designated for parking will be cited. (Our tip--if you're not sure--you're probably wrong!)

The Warrenton Community Information Center in the Premarq building is offering FREE, two-hour Internet training seminars. These sessions are available for cooperative work experience students. For more information contact Mary Merrill, Work Experience Director @ 338-2480.

NEWSPAPER PLEA**

ASBG provides a copy of The Daily Astorian and The Oregonian for your use. Many students wish to read it throughout the day. When you finish reading it, rather than leave it in the cafeteria to be tossed and strewn about, please return it to the ASBG office so others may have an opportunity to read it. Like many other privileges--they can be discontinued. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY is presenting the 15th Anniversary Tom McCall Forum in Portland, OR on Wed. Feb. 19, 1997. There will be a reception and dinner at the Portland Hilton and the debate will be held at Arlene Schnitzer Concert Hall. Tickets are $6.00 for students. Group discounts are also available by calling Pacific University @ (503)- 359-2211 or through Fastixx @ (503)- 224-8499. This promises to be a very worthwhile event, so consider attending. * $6 is for the debate only!

"Romeo & Juliet", directed by Gay B. Preston is currently performing at the Coaster Theater in Cannon Beach. Shows are on Friday and Saturday (February 7 & 8 and 14 & 15) at 8:00 p.m. Tickets are $15.00. It will be a tragedy if you don't attend. (Actually it will be a tragedy whether you show up or not.

THIS SPRING Bill Shea, Commissioner for the Port of Astoria, will teach Political Science 101--American Government. This course is designed to introduce students to American government and politics, particularly the three major branches our government and our current political system. No prerequisites will be required. Mr. Shea has instructed at Clatsop in the past.

CLATSOP LAMDA CLUB meets every other Monday afternoon @ 5:00 p.m. Any Gay, Lesbian, Bi, and friends are invited to attend. Contact Kim or Doug in ASBG for the exact location.

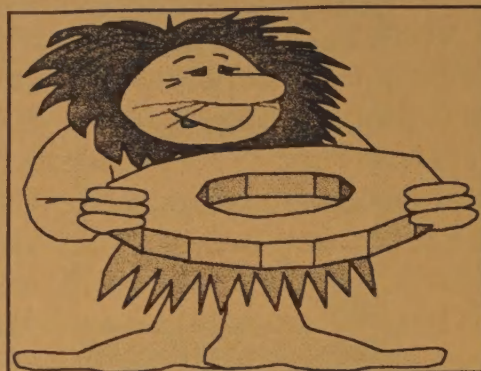

NETSCAPE SESSIONS are being conducted on campus. Times are: Monday from 9:15-10:15 a.m. and Friday from 11:00 a.m.-NOON in P326. Basic Web topics to be covered are: 1>Vocabulary: URL, hot links, crawlers, WWW, search engines, threads, and "Netiquette". 2>Navigating: how to move from the Netscape screen to something else and back again; what to do once you find what you want: saving files; copy/paste. 3> Begin searching: Yahoo and Webcrawler. From then on, topics and applications will vary according to interest, preference and suggestion. For more information contact Bonnie Allen at X2466 in the Library.

>FEBRUARY IS BLACK HISTORY MONTH<

STUDENT SERVICES

You can gain valuable work experience in your field of study, build your employment portfolio, and earn college credit, all at the same time. Cooperative Work Experience credits are flexible, transferrable, approved for financial aid, and can meet your academic needs. If you have not decided on a major, and would like to try a few career fields, we can assist you with an exploratory work experience. Our students have earned college credits by working or volunteering as: tug boat deckhands, veterinarian assistants, health care assistants, micro computer laboratory installers, research assistants, probation assistants, and office assistants. The possibilities are endless. Find your niche today. Talk to your advisor or contact Mary Merrill at 338-2480 to register. Her office is on the second floor of Towler Hall in Student Services.

Grow as a student activist.

Attend the GROW seminar February 14, 15 & 16
at Portland State University

The GrassRoots Organizing Weekends (GROW) have been developed by student and community organizers to give student activists the tools to solve the problems they face. The GROW seminar is designed to help you:

- Overcome campus apathy.
- Develop strategies to win specific issue campaigns.
- Gain hands-on organizing experience.
- Build more effective coalitions.
- Increase the membership, funding and influence of your organization.
- Remember: GROW looks great on your resume!

SESSION DETAILS

Trained student activists possessing diverse skills and experience facilitate each session. GROW trainings are a full weekend starting on Friday at 6:00 p.m. and running until Sunday at 5:00 p.m. The workshops involve all participants and build on one another. It is critical that participants make a commitment to attend the entire weekend session. The cost of the training is $40.

WHAT TO DO

To receive an application and information packet via mail or fax, contact the Oregon Student Association office as soon as possible at 503-588-1571. Registration by phone is also available. Requests for accommodations relating to disabilities can be made by calling OSA.
